Margaret Ann was born January 17, 1952 in Broken Bow, Nebraska to Ethan and Georgia (Fisher) Howard.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband of 46 years, Stephan; children, Stephanie Murphy and her husband, Tony Murphy and Douglas Dady and his longtime girlfriend, Opal Littrel, all of Grand Island; brother, Craig Howard of Oakland, Nebraska; three grandchildren, Alexander Murphy and wife Samantha Murphy, Jonathan Murphy and Halley Goakey; and great-granddaughter, Lexi Norton.

She was preceded in death by her parents and brother, Punch Howard.

She grew up a farm girl in the sandhills of Nebraska, moving to Mason City in the 1960's. She graduated from Ansley High School, class of 1970. Margaret was married to Stephan Dady on November 27, 1970. The couple made their home in Grand Island.

Margaret Ann was employed with JBS Swift Company for 35 years before retiring in 2014. She was a member of the Saddle Club and United Food and Commercial Workers International Union (UFCW Local 22). She also volunteered for the local Mobile Food Pantry.

She had camped annually at Sherman Reservoir for 20 years. Other than camping, her enjoyments included searching for and cataloging recipes, which she then cooked up for her family. However, Margaret's greatest enjoyment was her grandchildren.
