

Marie E. Poland

July 19, 1939 - October 9, 2017

Marie E. Poland, 78, of Hastings passed away Monday, October 9, 2017 at her home.

Celebration of life services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday at All Faiths Funeral Home. Dan Naranjo will officiate.

Marie was born on July 19, 1939 at Central City, daughter of George and Pearl (Emick) Steuben.

Her memory is cherished by her children, son, Pat (Laura) Beacom of FL and daughter, Jaci (Shane) Graf of Grand Island; sister, Reta Sindelar of Ft.

Wayne, IN; grandson Tyler Andreasen and great-granddaughter, Hayden Andreasen; along with numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Marie was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Bill, Dale, Paul, Neil, Robert, Dean, and Roy.

She was raised and received her education in Central City. Following her graduation, she began employment in retail. She primarily lived in small communities in central Nebraska but also lived for a time in Illinois and Arizona, where she enjoyed the weather the most.

Marie found her passion in creating custom jewelry. She was able to put her artistic talents to good use not only in original jewelry but also trinkets and rosaries. Her handcrafted jewelry wasn't the only artistic outlet Marie had, she also was an avid painter and sketcher.

Marie loved to play sports. She was the pitcher on a fast pitch softball team well into her 50s. She was also active on league Volleyball teams, flag football and an avid bowler. Marie shared her love of sports with her children, encouraging them in any chosen sport. She was able to share her knowledge of fast pitch soft ball with her daughter while coaching her team.

Marie adored her animals and always had a cat, dog or bird keeping her company. Marie will be remembered for being spirited, playful and strong. Memorials are designated to the Central Nebraska Humane Society.

“ I was sorry to read of Marie's passing. When she lived in Central City we bowled on the same league and had such fun times. We also had a son the same age of Pat but had lost touch with the family. Sending prayers to the family. Shirley & Charles Nelson
