Our condolences to Marsha's family. Her laughter is still in my memory. She always saw the good side of every situation. We shared April birthdays and raising our sons in GI. She found her soulmate in earthly life in Paschal. A big heart for sure. I miss you, my friend! Love, Diane and Phil Wagner

“ Marsha was a very kind soul, and easily one of the more influential people throughout my childhood. Music quickly became one of the most critical pieces of my life, and I have Marsha to thank for it.

I'm confident she is in a good place and she will always be looking down on us playing that lovely cadence from the sky.

“ I have so many memories of Marsha it is difficult to narrow it down. Marsha's love of music and her love of cats are two of the most memorable thoughts of Marsha. When we would come back from an outing with Marsha she would start 3 blocks away saying, "watch out for the kitties". Many will miss her beaming, smiling face.

“ Marsha had a kind heart and was a dear person. She spent many hours teaching our son Aaron how to play the keyboard and he really enjoyed it. We will miss her great attitude and friendly smile which she always had - But certainly God will welcome her into his home.

The very best to the family,
