“ Roy and family,
I am so very, very sorry for your loss. I think Marsha may have been one of the sweetest souls I ever met. She had a heartfelt smile for everyone and such a happy disposition. But when I think of her grandparents, I'm not surprised. Camille and Verdi lived across the street from my folks (Andy/Ollie Eaton) when I was born. They were also some of the sweetest people on earth; must run in the family. And now you and your family will have to find the strength to carry on her legacy and I have no doubt you will make her proud, as she takes her place among the angels who will welcome and love her. God bless all of you, as He did Marsha with such a loving family.
