Martha was born February 11, 1949 to Theodore and Ofilia (Reyna) Avila in Grand Island. She grew up in Grand Island where she attended Lincoln elementary school and Walnut middle school. She graduated from Grand Island Senior High in 1966. She was united in marriage to Marvin Luebbe on November 21, 1975, in Hastings. They raised two children in Grand Island. They spent ten years in Hobb, N.M. before moving back to Grand Island.

Martha was a member of Abundant Life Church. She made friends with everyone she met and went out of her way to make sure they had what they needed. She was a loving and devoted caregiver to many. While Marvin worked, she cared for the children and home. She was an amazing cook and known for her homemade tortillas. She enjoyed her tv game shows such as Price is Right, Let's Make a deal, and Wheel of Fortune. She was employed at Lutheran Hospital in the housekeeping department. She also enjoyed bingo, word searches and crafts. She was a fighter through whatever came her way with life or health issues.

She is survived by her son; Jay Luebbe (Davey Smith); daughters, Joy Luebbe (Charlie Uribe), Cindy Baker and Melissa Baker; brothers, Chi (Merna) and Noah (Carmela) Avila; sister, Mary (Jorge) Macias; 2 grandchildren; 2 great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband; brother, Robert Avila and sister, Vicky Gusman.
