“ Marvin & I were as close as anyone could get when we were kids. I remember us as best friends who always wanted to hang out, play games and goof off. We were practically family to each other. I am truly sadden that we let life create a distance of years & memories between us that we will never get to remedy. It hurts me just as much to not be able to say goodbye to such an old friend. I have never forgotten Marvin nor I will ever forget him. He is my brother, and I cherish him to this day. It brings peace of mind & of heart to see all of the friends, family and love that he has created.
