Her memory is cherished by her sons, Larry (Jacki) Bagwell, Ralph DePaulis, and William Culbertson all of Grand Island; sister, Ann Wellock of 29 Palms, CA ; daughter-in-law, Kathy Bachlor of CA; grandchildren, Jamie (Kristin) Bagwell, Josh (Heather) Bagwell, Casey (Stephanie) Bagwell, Dakota Bagwell, Stormie (Reggie) Williams, Matthew DePaulis, Mark DePaulis, Nikki Culbertson, Tammy Theriault, Jeramie Culbertson, Taylor Krueger, Trevor Krueger, Jazmine Krueger, Elena Garcia, Sherry Quintero; special friend, Rebecca Butts of Meridian, MS; along with numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her infant brother, sons, Mike Bagwell, and Bruce Culbertson, and daughter-in-law, Deborah DePaulis.

Mary was born on February 15, 1931 in San Bernardino, CA, daughter of Josie Chapman.

As a lifelong resident of San Bernardino, Mary received her education from Sturgis High School and continued her education graduating from the San Bernardino Valley Nursing College with her Licensed Vocational Nursing degree.

Mary went on to be a key employee in starting the Waterman Gardens Convalescent Home. She was the night shift nursing supervisor until her retirement in 1962. She continued selling Amway, Tupperware and Avon for many years. She recently moved to Grand Island to be near family.

After her husband's death, Mary raised her five sons and always put family first. She adored children and loved to be there for all of her grandchildren's activities, often chauffeuring them to and from school. Mary loved her coffee and events were planned around her favorite soap operas. Mary was always there for anyone in need, she was well liked and loved by all.

Memorials are suggested to the family.
