

Mary Pauline Grossart

May 6, 1927 - February 26, 2018

Mary Pauline Grossart, 90 of Grand Island went to her Heavenly home Monday, February 26, 2018 at Primrose Retirement Home.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 a.m. Friday at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church. Celebrating Mass will be Father Marty Egging. Burial will be at 2 p.m. Friday in the Hillside Cemetery in Wolbach.

Visitation will be from 5-7 p.m. Thursday with a Vigil Service at 7 p.m. at All Faiths Funeral Home.

Mary Pauline (McKenzie) Grossart was born May 6, 1927 on a family farm near Spalding in Greeley County the daughter of John and Mary (Joyce) McKenzie. She grew up in Leo Valley, a small community between Greeley and Spalding. Pauline attended country school. At the age of 14 she attended Irving Jr. High in Lincoln. She stayed with friends and worked for room and board because there was no way for her to get to school.

At the age of 15 her parents moved to a farm north of Wolbach and she was able to attend Wolbach Public School walking 3 to 4 miles every day. Pauline graduated Salutatorian in 1944 with a normal training certificate.

On October 27, 1947 she married Junior (Bill) Grossart in O'Connor, NE. This union was blessed with four children. Following their marriage, they lived in Wolbach for 25 years where she taught at Greeley Sacred Heart and Wolbach Public School. They moved to Grand Island in 1972 and she taught at Central Catholic High School and Chapman.

Following ten summers she completed her B.S. Degree in 1972. She retired from the Chapman School in 1991 following 40 years of teaching.

Pauline was a member of Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church and the American Legion Auxiliary. One of her greatest joy was making each great grandchild a personalized sequined Christmas stocking.

Those left to cherish her memory includes one sister, Phyllis Dubas of Columbus; sister-in-law, Willa Berney of Wolbach; four children, 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. They include daughter, Rita Lammers of Grand Island and her two sons, Brian (Ashley) Lammers, and their children, Shelby and Toby and Rita's second son, Brad Lammers; daughter, Susan (Verlyn) L'Heureux of Omaha and their two sons, Tracy (Katie) O'Gorman and their children, Triston, Dylan and Quinten and Susan's second son, Travis (Amy) O'Gorman and their children, Alex (Matt) Stice, Nevan and Eamon; son, Bill (Pamela) Grossart of Grand Island and their two sons, Brandon (Amber) Grossart and their children, Peyton and Ava and Bill's second son, Blake (special friend Lexi Sadd) Grossart and daughter, Rosanne (Dan) Christensen of Wolbach and their four daughters and one son, Jackie (Sean) Gellatly and their children, Raegan, Hannah and Dax; Amanda (Chris) Terrano and their children, Gavin, Kylee and Preston; Josh Christensen and his daughter, Kelsey; and Andrea Christensen and Katie Christensen. Also surviving is her dear friend, Arlie Jasnock of Primrose Retirement along with an extended host of family and friends.

Pauline is preceded in death by her husband, Junior (Bill); her parents; son-in-law, Jerry Lammers and grandson, Todd Lammers; sister and brother-in-law, Dorothy and Fritz Fenton; brother, Jack; brother-in-law, Frank Dubas; sisters-in-law, Evelyn Cook, Lila Terry, Lillian Wickard, Agnes Patrick and Ruby Bearbower.

A memorial fund will be established in memory of Pauline.

“ I have such pleasant memories of visits with Pauline when we visited Grand Island to see the Lammers. My grandson and I treasure the stocking made by Pauline, and every time I use the wonderful flour sack tea towels, I admire the embroidery done by Pauline. Know her family must have many, many happy memories to treasure, and I hope they bring you all comfort. Lucy Braun
