

Maxine Livingston

November 1, 1934 - September 8, 2015

Maxine Livingston, 80 of Grand Island, died on Tuesday, September 8, 2015 at Tiffany Square Care Center.

Visitation will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday at All Faiths Funeral Home.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m. on Friday at All Faiths Funeral Home. Dan Naranjo will officiate. Burial will follow at Grand Island City Cemetery.

Maxine was born on November 1, 1934 at Chapman, daughter of Paul and Rose (Moeller) Cornelius.

Those left to cherish her memory include her children, Rob (Coleen) Livingston, Pam (Gary) Lindell and Kathy (Steve) Powell all of Grand Island; brothers, Archie Cornelius and Ben (Faye) Cornelius both of Grand Island; 17 grandchildren, numerous great-grandchildren and a host of extended family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Sherley, sons, Roger and Ronald; parents, and brother, Jerry Cornelius.

Maxine was raised in the Chapman area; where she attended and graduated from Chapman High School. On November 8, 1952 she was united in marriage to Sherley Livingston Jr. The couple made their home in Wood River, Chapman and Central City before moving to Grand Island in 1972. While living in Grand Island, Maxine was employed as a cook in the public schools, and later she worked at the customer service / cash room for Skagway.

As a skilled seamstress, Maxine would spend time crocheting, quilting or sewing. With Sherley's assistance, they would always grow a large garden and can the produce. Over the years she collected many Barbie dolls and was always proud to show her collection. Maxine was an avid sports fan, whether it was watching the Huskers on TV or in the stands at one of her grandkids games.

Memorials are suggested to Alzheimer's Association or Make a Wish Foundation.
