“ Kent and Sasha, God blessed my life with Mayra. Mayra and Miriam lived w/ us for 5 1/2 years. I have so many wonderful memories of Mayra. She was my sister! My parents and the whole family loved her! Mayra truly loved my parents too. She was definitely the spark in our fam, she brought light into every room. Kent, she has always loved you so much, but I know you know that. Sasha made her life complete. Mayra had so much talent from day one. Your home is beautiful because of Mayra's ideas and your skilled hands. I know it will hurt not having her with you. Soon we all be together in Heaven with our Lord. But I'm praying for you and Sasha. Only the Lord can help you both in your grieving. Love you, Aleta Martinez Pesce

“ I enjoyed working with Mayra at Howard and later at Wasmer School. She was always so energetic and truly cared about the students she served. Mayra was so proud of her daughter, and I remember how her eyes would light up anytime she spoke about her family. I am sorry for your loss.

“ Mayra was a beautiful woman with a warm heart. She had impeccable taste, a good sense of humor and boy, could she dance! But the most amazing thing about Mayra's life was the love she shared with Kent. He loved her deeply, unconditionally, and unselfishly. May we learn from their lives and may Mayra's family have peace. Love, Barbara & Steve Fuller
