Melvin was born February 2, 1961 in Grand Island to Raymond and Patricia (Greenwalt) Brahatcek. He grew up in Grand Island and attended Central Catholic High School.

He was united in marriage to Lisa Hudson in November of 1979. To this union one child was born.

He enlisted in the Army in 1982 as an Armor Crewman and was honorably discharged in 1986.

He was employed with Case New Holland for 13 years, went on to Hornady as a machinist and then was a driver for Tyson Foods before retiring.

He enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping and anything outdoors. He loved to ride his motorcycle and liked to help people by participating in poker runs. He met many great friends and brothers over the years.

He is survived by his children, Misty Brahatcek of Lincoln, Dustin Anderson of Osceola and Krystle Croker of Bellingham, WA; grandchildren, Alexander and Allie Anderson and Laura Nichols; special friends, Dave and Cheryl Callahan; his beloved dog, Buster, and numerous cousins, other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents.
