Tribute Wall

“ I remember the day I took you to Omaha for an appointment and the kids rode with. We stopped in Lincoln at the park and you wouldn't let us push you across the field in your wheelchair. You said no you had it. I took pictures of you and the kids that day. Told them to treasure what time we had with you and I was trying to help them make a great memory with you. I love you and I will always miss you
