On May 30, 1958, she married Johnnie Bruns. Three children were born to this marriage. Over the years the family made their home in Grand Island and Phillips, returning to Grand Island in later years.

For a time, Nancy was employed by Aurora Schools and Lee's Family Restaurant, as a cook. For over thirty years she worked side by side with her daughter-in-law at Ann's Pet Salon bathing and caring for all the dogs that came her way. As a wonderful cook, Nancy could make simple dishes delicious and shared her gift with her daughters and granddaughters.

Any activity that Nancy's family was involved in, Nancy embraced and cheered them on. She loved to attend her son's races and care for her beloved dogs and Johnnie's squirrels and other critters that were lucky enough to be taken into their home. Holidays or anytime she could have her kids and grandkids all together were cherished by Nancy.

Survivors include her son, Dennis Bruns and daughter, Denise (Scott) Shafer; son-in-law, Dan Bergman, all of Grand Island; eight grandchildren, Mike, Rod, Lisa, Deanna, Andrew, Jenny (Scott Peters), Heidi and Hannah; two great-granddaughters, Destiny Oakley and Makala Clark; two great-great-grandchildren; and a brothers-in-law, Kenneth Hamburger of Kansas, and Ray (Katherine) Bickel of California.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Johnnie; a daughter, Deb Bergman; her parents; sisters and brothers-in-law, Joanne (Dale) McAdams, Dona (Don) Peters; sister, Joyce Hamburger; and special daughter-in-law, Ann Bruns.
