Services will be 10:30 a.m. Saturday at All Faiths Funeral Home. Dan Naranjo will officiate. Burial will follow in Phillips Cemetery.

Nate was born on September 7, 1986 in Grand Island, oldest son of Charlie and LeeAnn (Helmer) Joseph.

Those left to honor his memory include his parents, Charlie and LeeAnn of Grand Island; brother, Kevin Joseph of Grand Island; special four legged companion, Sammy; grandmas, Denise Helmer of Phillips Norma Joseph of Grand Island. Uncles and aunts Lonnie (Jackie) Helmer of Minnesota; Russ (Rosanne) Helmer of Grand Island; Sherry (Mark) Wheeler of Grand Island; Jim (Kathy) Joseph of Mesa, AZ; Barbara (Neil) Krieg of Shawnee, MI; Don (Debra) Proskocil of Ord his two best friends, several cousins and extended family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his grandpas, Roger Helmer and Gerhard Joseph.

Nate was raised in Grand Island; he attended Grand Island High School. He was an active in baseball and soccer player. He was currently attending CCC studying H-Vac.

In his spare time Nate enjoyed playing with Sammy or spending time with his best friends, which often resulted in trips to the Rocky Mountains, a favorite place of Nate's. He enjoyed playing Frisbee golf, was a devoted NASCAR fan and enjoyed watching Top Gear. Nate will be remembered for his sense of humor. Even when things were difficult his favorite saying was, "It is what it is".

Memorials are suggested to the family.

“ I will always remember his smile and his love for animals. When I 1st met him in 2004 we worked at wendys together. When he would come hang out he would always take my dog kiwi for a ride in his car because she was a husky and shed so much I didn't take her that often. He would always tell me that she was his dog lol I'm gonna miss ya nate I love you friend! Rest in peace!
