“ Neva was so wonderful to my son when he was attending the YWCA daycare. He was about 4 (he is 19 now) and would stop in her office every day on his way back to the daycare. She always talked to him and gave him candy. She even put his picture up on her wall so he would know that she cared about him. Most people got annoyed at his ADHD behavior but Neva just showered him with affection! That meant so much to me and to my son. I have never forgotten her kindness. I am sorry for her passing but know that she lived a good loving and caring life.

“ Heaven gained a beautiful soul when Neva arrived. She has always been loving and caring to everyone she meets. I remember when we would go for dinner and then to the Platte Duetsch for her to play a little keno, it would take an hour to exit the building because she always stopped and asked everyone she knew how they were doing. She will be greatly missed by many. I am truly honored to have known this wonderful lady and to call her my friend.
