Pat was born December 6, 1934 in Culbertson, NE to Joseph and Anna (McCracken) Schneider.

Survivors include nieces, nephews, cousins and many long-time friends in Grand Island and New Jersey.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Agatha Turk, Esther Morgan and Kathy Kalkowski and brother, LeRoy Schneider.

Pat’s early childhood was on a farm near Riverton, NE and later schooling in Grand Island graduating from Grand Island Senior High in 1952. She attended the University of Nebraska in Lincoln.

During high school she worked at Jack Bailey’s Studio and was later employed at Northwestern Bell in Grand Island and Omaha. In 1976 she was moved to AT &T headquarters in New York as a District Manager in Marketing. She retired after 35 years with the Bell System and returned to her hometown, Grand Island in 2012.

Pat was an accomplished, self-taught artist and author. Over the years her work was on display in a number of juried and private shows in Omaha and New Jersey.

She was an avid traveler visiting 5 continents and 13 countries over the years including a journey around the world in 1999.

The Christmas Holidays were special for her. Each year, for decades, she had an elaborate holiday open house “Coffee and Goodies”, for family and friends.

Pat was a member of Catholic Daughters of the Americans, the Matt Talbot Retreat movement in New Jersey, a Life member of Telephone Pioneers and a friend of Bill W. since 1981.
