“ Dear Steve & Charlie,

As you know, Pat and I are the same age and spent quite a bit of time together on 47th Ave. We made tons of trips to the Nifty for chili dogs and fries and nearly all of those trips were funded exclusively by your Mom. I think I remember a crazy mynah bird that would get lose once in a while at your house as well. Mostly, I remember that Pat and I and our Holy Name pals had lots of laughs together.

So sorry for your loss - Pat will enjoy seeing all the Hegarty's that have gone before him to meet our loving Father in Heaven. I know that my Dad will be particularly happy to see him - as well yours.

Please let me know if I can ever help you in any way.

*Love, Jim Hegarty
