

Paul Jamson

May 23, 1956 - May 22, 2021

Paul Jamson, 64 of Grand Island passed away unexpectedly at home, on Saturday, May 22, 2021.

Service to honor Paul's life will be at 10:30 AM, Friday, July 2nd at All Faiths Funeral Home. Daniel Naranjo will officiate. Burial of ashes will be in the Westlawn Memorial Park Cemetery. A celebration of life will follow at the Peacock Lounge. Online condolences may be sent to www.giallfaiths.com

Paul was born on May 23, 1956 in Kansas City, Missouri the son of Theodore "Ted" and Anastacia "Anne" (Jouras) Jamson. He grew up in Grand Island, Nebraska and Sacramento, California. Paul spent the majority of his career in construction and real estate development. He was President of Jamson Enterprises and Jamson Rentals family businesses. He held great pride in taking over the reins of the businesses his grandfather founded. His true passion was building homes, but he also managed restaurants, booked bands and owned the Peacock Lounge bringing quality live blues music to Grand Island. In another life, we think Paul would have been a natural born comedian. His greatest joys were being surrounded by those he loved and making people laugh. Always, a new joke to share or a humorous way of looking at life. Laughter was his true medicine in life and a gift to others. Paul was as tough as they come yet with a huge heart. If you needed strength or love, he was there in a heartbeat. He would end his conversations with his nephews, "Do you need anything? Is there anything I can do for you? You know I'm here for you, right?" No matter what challenge he faced, he didn't complain, he simply toughed it out like the true grit of a cowboy. That's why we think he loved to watch westerns. Recently, he shared a quote from the John Wayne movie, Hondo. He asked that it be shared when he passed, "Everyone gets dead, it was just his turn." He thought it was funny yet straight to the point. Pretty much how he lived his life. He will be remembered for his strength, his giving heart, and his sense of humor. Paul will be dearly missed. As his wife Annette shared, Paul will be forever remembered by so many as a brave, generous soul. He loved people and he loved life.

Paul is survived by his loving wife Annette; brother, Nick Jamson (JoAnn); sister, Mary Hiserman (John), and sister, Deme Jamson; his nephews, Alex Jamson, Luke Hiserman, Jamey Paull and Nicky Jamson; cousin, Christi Paschang (Phil) and their children Matt, Danny and Andrea; cousins, Peter Jouras and Roxi Pistilli-Padrid (Philip); stepsons, Jordan and Ryan McBride (Sara); grandchildren, Addison and Zachary; mother-in-law, Betty Haddock and sisters-in-law, Vicki Lloyd and Sandy Haddock. Paul is preceded in death by his parents, Ted and Anne Jamson.

“ Paul was an incredible person...he did many things to help people that I am sure he never talked about....but knowing him was a true blessing.....his mother and father were also incredible humans...once Paul knew you he never forgot you and even when he couldn't see you....he recognized your voice and always had a hello and called you by name. I think when he had a Blues Band playing at his bar.....he thought he was in heaven and everyone who went to hear them had almost as much fun as he did...will miss you Paul and never forget you!
