“ my name is James (Baby Joe). I'm one of Paige's nephews. My most fond memory of my Aunt Peg was when she bailed me out of jail on her birthday.

“ I met Peggy and we became friends while taking a typing class in high school. She had the best sense of humor. I had the pleasure of going to her home and meeting several members of her family. She was several years older than me and unfortunately we never kept in touch after high school.

I was in Grand Island this weekend and was sorry to see that Peggy had passed away.

I'm so glad I had the opportunity to know Peggy, if only for a short period of time.

Rest in peace Peggy.

“ I remember Peggy as an upbeat and positive person. Everyone considered her a friend. I will forever be grateful for Peggy coming to my defense when we were in junior high and I was with a group of friends downtown. She arrived out of no where and took control of a frightening confrontation. I was "shaking in my boots"; she wasn't.

Rest in peace, Peggy.
