“ I am sorry that I looked for phil too late. We were roommates in college driving around in his purple spiderweb looking Volkswagen that barely ran and when it did , didn't always stop . My memories of Phil are mostly laughing hysterically. He was a good and generous friend.

“ To Philips family I am so terribly sorry for your loss. I had actually wondered why I hadn't seen him at Walgreens. My husband passed away last year and both of us being on quite a few meds we visited the pharmacy frequently. Philip was a wonderful person and pharmacist. He would tell me to call anytime I had questions and I did so many times. He was so gracious to take the time to explain something I didn't understand. He had a way of putting you at ease and making you feel that he cared. It was always a pleasure to see him behind the counter. Just know that he will be missed.
