“ Oh my goodness, the many memories of Phyllis and Gene are so very wonderful to remember. My parents, Roger and Carol Mueller, were best of friends with Phyllis and Gene. After Gene passed, mom, dad and Phyllis would meet each Friday night for a glass of wine and some wonderful snacks, sometimes followed by dinner, but always followed with a game of Skyjo. (Thanks so much Lynne for sharing this game with them!) I was fortunate enough to join them on many Friday nights and always enjoyed that so much. It's also been great to rekindle a friendship with Lynne. My mom passed away in April, and I felt it was very important to keep the friendship between my dad and Phyllis going. We went for several lunches, happy hours, and pie and coffee at Tommy's. Each time I made it back to Grand Island, I liked to take dad to visit Phyllis. Phyllis, you were so special to our family, and now I know you and mom are chatting away and enjoying a glass of wine in Heaven together. Love and hugs to the whole family.
