

Raylene Sandra Simon

May 21, 1948 - November 13, 2015

Raylene Sandra Simon, 67, of Grand Island died Friday, November 13, 2015. To honor Raylene's wishes cremation has taken place. Celebration of Life Service will be 1:00 p.m. Wednesday at All Faiths Funeral Home. A gathering of family and friends will be from 5-7 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

Raylene was born May 21, 1948, at O'Neill, the daughter of Ray and Naomi (Froseth) Nemec. She grew up in Spencer, graduating from Spencer High School in 1966. She went on to graduate from Grand Island School of Business. She was united in marriage George Simon on Labor Day in 1967 at Murdo, South Dakota.

For over 30 years Raylene was employed as bookkeeper with the same company Roy's Grand, which was previously Parella Motors, Inc. and before that Schuppans. She retired in 2014.

She was a member of Caring Women, the Vintage and Classic Wheels Car Club, and Rusty Bottoms Supper Club. Raylene loved her husband and her four-legged companions, Rudy, Foxy and Sidecar. Her enjoyments included showing classic cars with her husband, her flower gardens, crafting, reading and socializing with her friends.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband, George; father, Ray Nemec of Spencer; daughter, Michelle Simon of Sacramento, CA; brother, Neil Nemec of O'Neill; sister, Renice Bales of Fairbury; nieces and nephews and numerous good friends.

She was preceded in death by her mother and niece, Rachel Nemec.
Memorials are suggested to "Caring Women".

“ *Dear Family,
Raylene and I graduated from Spencer Public School together. She was a friend. Will always remember the sleep over a bunch of us girl's had at her home on the farm. What a "BLAST". Heard Ray still lives on the farm? You have our heartfelt sympathy. We lost our daughter this last July, so know the pain of loss. Knowing God holds you in the palm of His hand and He cares for you!
God bless,
Eunice [Mott] and Kenneth Brandt*
