“ I have so many fond memories of Becky when she used to babysit me and my 2 other brothers. She taught us how to bowl (with bumpers), to play monopoly and cards, and to not eat the rabbit turds we found in the yard which my older brother Brandon tried to convince Jacob and I were Coco Puffs. She protected us from geese that would chase us at Stuhr Museum and would somehow magically open her garage door without hitting the garage door opener in her car. Most importantly, she taught us how to share, how to lose a game with a smile, how to be kind to one another, and how to be respectful. And how can I forget her wonderful smile and her warm hugs. Her house was our home away from home and she was our second Mom. I offer my condolences to her family and I pray that she is happy and at peace in Heaven with Jesus.
