“ Due to the weather and my fear of slick highways I will not be there but wanted Regina's family to know of my heartfelt sympathy. I worked with Regina for many years she was a peach, always thinking of others and so very friendly. As I had shared once on facbook in talking in the breakroom in surgery at Good Samaritan Hospital in Kearny, NE. I had mentioned that I could not find a cabbage patch doll for my daughter. When she went to Germany she found one and brought it back for us, my daughter was and is still elated with joy that she has a doll with a biirth certificate from Germany!! Only one example of her thoughtfulness. I loved her beautiful smile and truly just liked to hear her accent. :) She will be missed I have so many fond memories of her. Her friend Claudette Horst
