“ My favorite memory of Rhonda was the time she walked into the house and myself, Dave, and Razzle were sitting in the living room, problem was she had just received a call from the school saying that someone had just called and checked Dave out of school. That someone was me and I had tried to disguise my voice to sound like Rhonda. Obviously they didn't buy it! After some begging and pleading I convinced her not to call my dad. However, she did give Razzle and I the boot, but she never turned us in. Rhonda was such an awesome parent, so loving and caring, and would do anything for her children. Heaven has a new Angel and she will watching over her family from above. Thank you Rhonda for all the great memories!

“ To Rhonda's family who she was so very proud of and loved so much:
I remember Rhonda from when she was a very beautiful toddler being carried around by all of us older cousins. Always happy. I am grateful for having been able to spend a few hours with her this past fall in Loup City, although we were there for another sad occasion. She always had a very positive effect on everyone present. So much fun to be around.
Bless you all and may you find peace with each other at this time.
Love, Cousin Peggy Joy and all my family who didn't know her well but have fond memories of her warm personality.

Rhonda will be missed greatly. No matter what life threw at here she always had a smile on her face. I'll never forget the time we took our girls to Lincoln for a concert. We were the old ladies in the audience but we still had fun. Bev Larson.
