“ Dear Marilyn and family, very sorry to hear of Dick's passing. I will set another irrigation tube for him. I'm sure you will know what I mean by that. The man gave me my first beer too. He was great person to work for.

“ *Hello, my Dad is Jim Webster, Dick's oldest brother. I am Jim's youngest daughter, Kay, writing on his behalf. My Dad is sharing memories of Dick, including his baseball days and recalling his brother hitting a home run!
My Dad had a '50 Plymouth that he let Dick drive often, even if it meant he sat in the backseat. When my parents Jim and Donna, got married, they kept the car, and everyone asked Dick where his car was.
Dad recalls making and setting irrigation tubes with Dick when they were just a couple of kids, and how fast they worked at it together.
They were cultivating fields before they were old enough to drive a car.*
