Rick was born on April 19, 1955 in Cedar City, Utah the son of Gary (Joe) George and Doris (Beitz) Marshall. He moved to North Platte as a young boy and graduated from North Platte Senior High class of 1973. He was united in marriage to Deb Geer on December 2, 1974. This union was blessed with children, Heidi, Heather and Brent.

Rick owned and operated Dalton Home Improvement. Along with his wife Deb, they were owners of the Farmer's Daughter Café for over 20 years. He will be remembered for his hard work ethic.

Some of his enjoyments included fishing, hunting, golfing and woodworking. Rick could be found at all waking hours out in his garage creating anything out of wood. He prided himself in making furniture for his grandchildren, including many of the cradles they slept in, clocks, and most recently had been working on Intarsia. He sold a few pieces, but took more pride in giving them away to close friends and family members.

Those left to cherish his memory are his wife of 48 years, Deb; daughter,

Other survivors are his sisters, Vickey (Charles) Callen of Littleton, CO and Tammy (Todd) Peterson of North Platte and brothers, Chris (Mellisa) Marshall of North Platte and Todd (Sherry) Marshall of Utah.

He is preceded in death by his daughter, Heather; his parents and brother, Brad Dalton.
