“Dad was the kind of man who always made you feel like you could achieve anything. Loved his kids even though we joke that Lea was his favorite. Enjoyed sports and watching us kids and all his grandchildren play. He always loved when mom would take us to his job site ans an kid and he would give us rides in his scraper. So proud of the loads he would do and show us with his counter. Back in the day there was no cell phone. He would call collect every Wednesday and I remember the excitement I would feel to tell him what we were doing.
Always loved
