“ So many laughs and long days in the rugged hours of the morning working in Walmart. I will never forget your stories, wit, and always knowing how to give that advice to turn a frown to a smile. Gosh I still can't believe I can never get my "Bob" fix. TEARS. Sorrow fills my heart at the loss of a great friend! You crossed my path and my life is forever changed. Thank you for being a light for so many in their moments of need. His best one that always made me laugh.... Bob: Can I go we? Me: What? Bob: WEEEEEEEEEEEE..... and off to the bathroom he would go! Laughs.

“ I haven't seen Bob in decades but I never stopped remembering the times, his wit and wisdom, and his generosity. I wonder if he ever knew how many friends he had and how much he was respected. He was a true friend.

“ Another memory to share. The day my youngest was born I had asked Bob if I could give Shawn his middle name. All because he was there for me through alto of lifes little twists and turns and he said yes. So Shawn Paul Wilson who Bob had a huge impact on his first 11 years of life will always be with us in a sense watching over us.

“ My God, where do I even begin. So many memories of growing up and sharing so much of my life with Bob. Being 5 years old together, neighbors in Blaine Addition, walking to Lincoln School together, playing every sport side by side, he helped me with my math. We could often be seen together at the YMCA or driving down South Locust in his brown '59 Chevy bellowing out a Grand Funk Railroad song in perfect harmony. God, I miss you, Bob. A closer and better friend I've never had. If you had a friend in Bob, you know exactly what I'm talking about. I am so sorry.... Mike, please accept my condolences. For those of you reading this, please, please don't let a loved one slip away without you telling them how much you really love and care about them.

Love you,

Allen Buswell
