

Ronald J. Janky Jr.

September 4, 1961 - February 22, 2020

Ronald J. Janky, Jr., 58, of Omaha, passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 22, in Omaha, at the University of Nebraska Medical Center. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 29th at All Faiths Funeral Home at 11:00 with Dan Naranjo officiating. A gathering will be held one hour prior to the service, also at the funeral home. A celebration of life and remembrance open house will be held from 1:00-3:00 at Kinkaider Brewing Company: 316 N. Pine Street, Grand Island, NE.

Ron was born on September 4, 1961 to Ronald Sr. and Jean C. (Bray) Janky in Grand Island. He attended St. Paul High School and was a graduate of the 1979 class. A year later, Ron entered the United States Army, where he proudly served his country for four years. Ron would make Nebraska his home for most of his adult life working primarily in various sales positions. Ron was an avid horse racing fan who enjoyed bowling and watching Nebraska football and basketball as well as being a Kansas City Chiefs and Royals fan. He was a member of the Catholic faith.

Those left to cherish his memory include his father Ronald Sr., his brother Greg and sister-in-law Rhonda, his brother Mike and sister-in-law Nichole, his sister Kim and brother-in-law Brian along with nieces Jessi and Katria Kindscher, Madison and Amber Janky and nephews Kyle and Brooks Kindscher

Ron was preceded in death by his mother Jean and both sides of his family's grandparents.

“ I am so terribly sorry to hear of Ron's passing. I had tried to track him down the last few years but was unable to do so - hoping some day I would. Ron and I were close friends when we were stationed together in Korea from 1983-1984. He was a true professional, a committed sports fan, and a great friend. Thoughts and prayers.
