“ Ron was always just Ronnie. Whenever we were up for a family gathering in North Loup at either Grandma and Grandpa White's, or at Uncle Larry and Aunt Karen's, he was always nice and always friendly. He accepted you as you were and you never felt like you had to impress him. He was just an all around nice guy, and we miss that about him.

“ Ron and I were members of a cancer support group who met in St. Paul and you are right Ronda. Ron put other people first. He would patiently listen as each of us would share our updates and then he would briefly tell us how he was doing. He was so kind and he carried a heavy cross and he went through so much. Jesus decided it was time for Ron to stop hurting so he took him home. My heart breaks for you Lynette and for the rest of his family. Remember Ron's struggles are now over and he is with GOD. Goodbye my friend until we meet again.

“ I was deeply, deeply saddened to read of Ron's death. I taught hundreds of students at Northwest High School and none was nicer than Ron. He was a treasure and a treat to teach in the science classroom.

May Ron Rest in Peace. We will say a prayer for him and for your family at Mass this afternoon.

“ I have several great memories with my cousin Ronnie. When we were little he was babysitting his sisters, myself and my little brother. We were at our grandmas home between Ord and North Loup. The tornado sirens went off and we all panicked except for Ronnie who pretty much saved all our lives by getting us in the cellar outside the house. The tornado did pass over the house and caused some minor damage to the house and yard. He was a good person and always put others first. He was loved and respected and will be deeply missed. RIP Ronnie, finally pain free.
