Rosalind was born on June 22, 1935 at Lima, Ohio, daughter of Homer and Margaret (Baker) Hites. She graduated from Lima South High School. On March 30, 1954 they were married in Indianola, Indiana and made their home in Lima the first year. While living in Lima, Rosalind was employed as the bookkeeper for Kays Jewelry. The young couple soon moved to Don's hometown and settled in North Loup where Rosalind cared for the two children and the home. Soon the family moved to Grand Island, Rosalind resumed bookkeeping for Bartenbach and more recently, Diamond Vogel. She was also known for selling Avon.

Rosalind was known for her holiday meals being large enough for the whole block to attend. She was extremely active and loved to play cards, Gin Rummy being a favorite with her family. Rosalind also completed puzzles and enjoyed word searches.

Rosalind was a long-time member of the United Congregational Church before it was on Bismark and volunteered as a Sunday School Teacher for over 35 years.
