To this union 2 children were born and she accepted Jason's 2 children as her own with open arms and an open heart. Making a joyous household of 6. Roxie worked at Goodrich Dairy, Factory Card Outlet, Walgreens and Dollar General. She spent near 2 decades babysitting many kids. Making the house a home where all felt her care and love.

Roxie enjoyed cooking, filling the house with aromas that made all the mouths water. She also enjoyed reading, watching tv, especially HGTV and the Chicago series with her daughter Amber, playing Uno, and most importantly spending time with her loved ones.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband, Jason Zoucha of Grand Island; sons, Cameron Zoucha of Republic, MO, Jake Zoucha of Sutton and Jeremiah Zoucha of Kearney; daughter, Amber Zoucha of Grand Island; 1 grandchild; sister, Sheila Krolikowski of Grand Island; sister in-law, Bonnie Stobbe of Grand Island and many nieces and nephews.

The strongest warrior in every sense of the word. Roxie fought against Multiple Sclerosis (MS) for roughly 21 years. She defied all odds, and with great tenacity and strength pushed through events even when the odds were at its slimmest.
