“ Stacy met Sandra at Morton Elementary in Hastings, here first teaching job! Sandra was such an amazing person, kind, thoughtful, caring it was an easy connection for Stacy and they became great friends. Fast forward some years, Mel and Sandra move to Grand Island, we grow closer as they become our favorite couple and wish we could adopt them! :-)

We get married in Dec 1995 in frigid Watertown, SD and they make the long trip to witness our union. In 1999, our daughter was born, and they graciously accepted the title of "GODPARENTS"!! Our lives have been forever changed having Sandra and Mel so close to our family, they are the most wonderful people you could ever wish to be part of your life.

We will miss Sandra very much but celebrate her forever and continue our journey with Mel, Thea, Cliff, Darren and families. We love you Sandra!

“ Back in the 1970's Sandra and I were co-leaders for a Girl Scout Troop in Hastings. She taught me much about leadership and flexibility. When Jim and I left Hastings, we all lost touch. Sandra helped shape my future career with her insights and wisdom.

I am so sorry for your loss. Mary McCart Cramer, Columbia, MO
