Sandra was born on June 23, 1944 at Gordon, NE to Claude L. and Pearl (Homan) Morton.

Survivors include her husband, Dwight of Grand Island; children, Martin and (Stephanie) Bolles, Shane (Amy) Bolles, and Sabra (Rick) Sanchez all of Grand Island; brother, Donald "Butch" (Jackie) Imus; sisters, Nina of Minn., Darla of CO, and Claudette "Babe" of Valentine, NE; brothers-in-law, Willard Bolles, Robert "Rand" (Barbara) Bolles, Garry (Pauline) Bolles, Larry Bolles and Janie; sisters-in-law, Nita Ruzicka, Nina Woodruff, Linda (Kenny) Lauritsen, Norma Stlattstoesser Bolles; eight grandchildren, Dennie Bolles, Makala Sanchez, Marcus Sanchez, Alyssa, Dana and Eli Bolles, Colton Durham and Breton Rivera; great -grandchildren, Liliana Ascencion, Ariana and Kinsley Durham; along with numerous extended family and friends.

Sandy was preceded in death by her parents; infant granddaughter, Emily Kay Bolles; father and mother -in-law, Homer and Alice Bolles; brothers-in-law, Louis Bolles, Gordon Ruzicka, Douglas Bolles, Robert Woodruff; sisters-in-law, Norma Harrop Bolles, Ruth Bolles, Deanna Bolles; and several nieces and nephews.

Sandy was raised in the Sandhills of Nebraska. She attended country schools for her grade school education and graduated from Cody Public Schools in 1962.

On June 18, 1965, Sandy married Dwight Bolles. The couple made their home in Grand Island.

Sandy was employed at Meves Bowl for years, for the next 27 years she worked in the dietary department for the Grand Island Veterans Home. After retirement, Sandy had too much free time so she began working at the Grand Island Public Schools in the kitchen for the next several years.

Sandy wasn't fond of water but she loved to fish and enjoyed her time outdoors. In her spare time, she liked to relax and watch a good movie. Her family was her life. No matter the help they needed, Sandy was there for them. Her latest labor of love was for her to handwrite recipe books for each family member. Sandy instilled in her family the value of hard work and caring for those around you. She will always be missed for her gentle care and support.

Memorials are designated to the family.
