“ I loved Scott's love for photography and nature, his love for watching the baby eagles grow on the Decora Iowa webcam was amazing, he shared his love with all of us through his pictures and conversations. His passion to help others on 4N was his greatest accomplishment, he would give anyone the shirt off his back or food from his own lunch bag and go without if that's what had to be done. He loved to travel and was always sharing his photos with us at work. His laugh will never be forgotten. He told me once I'm not afraid to die I know where I'm going. He finally made that last trip, we will miss that laugh but we know he is pain free now and is home with our Lord and Savior.
