“ Shawn, my friend, for all the times you sang karaoke for us, we will never forget how you would light up the stage with your presence and your own unique way of singing. It was truly an absolute pleasure to have known you and Mike. I remember setting up sound equipment in the field to play music at your wedding and the reception that followed after. You always had a way of putting a smile on my face when you and Mike would walk in. Pam and I will miss those times and you. Our hearts are heavy and our prayers for peace and comfort we will pray for your family and Mike, and sing a couple songs with angels for us. With much love till we meet again, Pam and J.R. Camp

“ Mary Ann, Andy and Stacy, I am deeply saddened by the loss of your son and brother, he brought so much joy to all in live he crossed paths with. Even me as a little freshman trying to learn how to play basketball for your dad and upper classmen, I always remember Shawn's intoxicating smile and his silent words of "dads in a bad mood, just let it go in one ear and out the other, he is old and doesn't know better" comments, and how he pushed me to be the best I could be in all sports at Hildreth. He was always the first to take someone under his wing and help them anyway he could. I think back to the foreign exchange student Eddie from France, and how Shawn was his football buddy and the laughter of trying to settle Eddie down to kick the ball, but Shawn said "before you play football, you have to learn how to put the equipment on" haha, oh the foul language and arguments between those two however Shawn always won in his own way, with patience, diligence, and his love of people. As any small town remembers those who make the town great and impacted peoples lives, Shawn was that man, everyone in town was greeted by a smile, a giggle and even when his nickname from his classmates was given as "Gumby" he wore it and owned it proud, lap after lap, free throw after free throw, tackle after tackle, he as so engaged in loving life for what it is. No doubt his crossing into heaven has brought him back together with Rod, and his wings open wide protecting you, your family, his husband, children, nieces and nephews and he will be your guardian through life living in his moment being the great positive protector.

Thank you for sharing that Russ. It gives me comfort knowing others thought so fondly of Shahn. These were very beautiful words.

I only knew Shahn for less than a year after Mike "adopted" me as his Aunt Sandy, but I loved him as if he had been my "nephew in law" for many years. I love you, Shahn and I miss you and will do my best to support your family.
