

Shawn Wesley Price

July 22, 1971 - July 26, 2020

Shawn Wesley Price, 49, of Grand Island passed away on Sunday, July 26th at CHI-Health St. Francis after a long and courageous battle with cancer. A Celebration of Life Ceremony will take place on Friday, July 31st, at the Full Circle Venue starting at 4pm. A memorial service will be held at 5pm.

Reverend John Hayes will officiate. Following the services, a dinner reception and cash bar will be available. Casual attire is requested. A private family burial will be held at a later date. All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

Shawn was born on July 22, 1971 in Grand Island, to John and H. Sam (Vollmer) Price. Shawn grew up in the Grand Island and Central City areas, graduating from Central City High School in 1989. He entered the United States Marine Corps in October of 1989, serving during the Gulf War. He was honorably discharged in 1993. Shawn was united in marriage to Kari Braun on July 8, 2000. Together, they had 2 children: Madison, born in November 1998 and Johnathan, born in May 2003. Shawn absolutely adored his family, he was their rock. His kids were his whole world. He was always there to support them and pushed them to be their best. Seeing them succeed was one of his greatest joys.

Shawn provided for his family by working at Tool Barn Rentals and later at Case New Holland. Most recently, he worked as a diesel mechanic at Aurora Coop.

When he wasn't busy working, or attending extracurricular activities for his kids, Shawn enjoyed working on his 1931 Ford Model A, playing golf with his friends, and during football season, you could always catch him watching a game, especially his lifelong favorite team, the Dallas Cowboys. He enjoyed Kansas City Royals baseball and was always ready for a good party. Aside from his kids, Shawn also had an amazing bond with his 4-legged child, the family's dog, Willie. Willie stayed by his side until the end. Anyone who knew Shawn will tell you his happiness was contagious. He had an infectious smile that could light up a room. He loved deeply and considered all of his friends to be his family. A brother to many and a friend to all, Shawn enjoyed and lived life to the fullest. He recently became a grandfather and you could often find him napping with his precious little grandson, Beau Baker. He was over the moon in love with him.

Those left to cherish his memory include the love of his life, Kari; his mother, H. Sam Price; stepfather, Gerald Williams; his children, Madison Price (Brayden Snell) and Johnathan Price; grandson, Beau Snell; sister, Cyndi Hayes (Jeff); brother, Joe Supik; in-laws, Bob Braun and Sherri Braun; and extended family, Aimee (Jake) Drapal, Ben Braun (Brandi Nigro), Andrew Braun (Kacie Miller); and nieces & nephews: Colby Hayes, Blake Drapal, Zac Drapal, Taylor Braun, Payton Braun and Jaylee Braun.

Shawn was preceded in death by his father John; and grandparents, Otto & Irene Price and Mabel Cheleski.

The family would like to extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to Dr. Chad Vieth, Dr. Ryan Ramaekers and the entire team of nurses, aides and doctors at the CHI Cancer Treatment Center and CHI-Health St. Francis for the love and support over the last year.

Memorials are suggested to the family.

“ My first time meeting your family was at Maddi's graduation party. It was in January, of course we had an ice storm that day. You & Shawn were setting up the food, & worried that people were not going to make it because of the weather. Well that did not stop many of your friends & family from showing up. I remember Shawn coming behind the bar & helping me out - I got you Kimmy - he would say - man did he save me. That wasn't the only time - he was always ready to lend a helping hand.

His smile, his greeting, the love he talked about & showed for his family - truly a great man. Lots of love to you & the kids.

“ We will always remember how kind Shawn and Kari had welcomed us to the neighborhood. Shawn's smile was definitely what everyone says it was, contagious, light up the room kind of smile. He will be missed by a lot of people. Shawn and Kari have welcomed our grandson Rian into their home on several occasions and Rian considers John one of his best friends, and it is because John was raised by two beautiful people that showed him how to accept people and show love and compassion for others- Shawn & Kari you raised a fine young man. Shawn - we will remember you for being a great neighbor and friend.

Always - Nathan & Ronda Price
