“ Aunt Shirley was always special to me even though I saw her only once a year growing up when we visited from Montana. She was my "fun" aunt I loved being around. When Jerry and I visited her and Uncle Bernie, after we had discovered the fabulous Mexican restaurant in Grand Island, we were able to convince them once to eat there with us. It was quite a hilarious experience! Jerry and I always included a stop to see them when we visited our grandkids in Omaha and Mom in Hastings. When we talked on the phone over the last few years she always wanted to know about our escapades before she talked about herself. We will miss her.

“ When I was growing up in Montana, one of the bright spots of our annual August visit was seeing my Aunt Shirley, hearing her laughter, and playing with her dogs. Over the years since then a visit to Nebraska included a visit to Aunt Shirley. Her laughter never changed, though the dogs did. She will be missed.
