“ We are praying for God to hold you close to His heart and give you comfort and warm your hurting hearts. One of God's blessings He gives to us when a loved one goes home are all the awesome memories they created here on earth. Speak of these treasures often.

*I've known Sue for a few years & she became a good friend. I very much enjoyed our visits each week & I find that I miss her & what she came to mean to me as a friend.
I pray that her loved ones will all come to accept the Lord Jesus as their Savior & be reunited with her one day where there is only love, & there is no heartache.
I am blessed to have been her friend & I thank God for Sue.*
