“ I will always think of Terry as the white haired version of Matt Dillion from Gunsmoke! Terry laughed at that and I will remember him smiling, laughing, upbeat no matter the circumstances, caring, kind, supportive, unassuming and the list goes on. We have been friends for several years although he didn't talk about himself much. I met with him the week before I moved to Iowa to say goodbye, not knowing it would be the last time I would see him on this side of heaven. There is a big empty place here on earth where he used to be and I miss him already. He has changed residences, but he is not and will not be forgotten here by all of us who love this gentle giant. Rest in sweet peace my friend...
