

Terry Marvin Slocum

February 13, 1955 - November 6, 2024

Terry Marvin Slocum, age 69, of Grand Island, passed away on Wednesday, November 6, 2024, at CHI Health Good Samaritan in Kearney.

A celebration of life service will be held at Northridge Assembly of God Church on Tuesday, November 19th at 1pm, officiated by Pastor Mark Oberbeck. Memorials are suggested to the family for future designation. All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements. Condolences can be left at www. giallfaiths.com.

Terry was born on February 13, 1955, in Omaha to Samuel Jake and Florence (Stephens) Slocum. He lived in Omaha until 1970 when the family relocated to Grand Island. Terry was employed as a long-haul truck driver; he was a hard worker, avid reader, and a follower of Christ.

Affectionately known as “Uncle Terry” by many, he was a caring man with a father’s heart often taking his nieces and nephews under his wing and adopting others into his family, and he took care of his family. Uncle Terry had a soft spot for children and was often spoiling them with trips to the ice cream shop, eating out, and giving them whatever they asked for.

Terry was a kind, generous, and loving man, who always made sure everyone’s needs were provided for. With an ornery sense of humor, he sparked lots of laughter in those around him. Terry gave the ultimate gift of life to countless people by being a tissue donor. With his donation he was able to provide others with the opportunity to live longer, healthier lives. This gift will be remembered by all whose lives he touched.

Those left to cherish Terry's memory include his children, Jason Slocum and Tarra Arcos; brother, Phillip (Theresa) Slocum; sister, Kathy Maw, several nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and all those adopted into his big heart.

Terry is preceded in death by his parents; brother, Mike Slocum; sister, Sharon Smith and brother in-law, James Maw.

“ Uncle Terry was always playing around with us kids, but I think I may be the only one that he picked up off her feet by my 2 braids in my hair. And always asked him to do it again. May he rest in peace.
