“ My Grandma was one of the kindest ladies who knew no stranger and loved everyone for who they were. She didn't judge just accepted who you were. Anytime you showed up there was always a dessert on the table and coffee brewing. Grandma could cook and if you went away hungry it was your own fault. My greatest memory of you Grandma was when you made my jean quilt and told me that this was made from love and it a lot of long hours to tie it but it was worth because it was for you. I will miss you more than you know. Drink coffee and breath easy Grandma I love you.
