“ Tina lived on our block and she and our daughter Chris often played together as children. They also belonged to the same 4-H club called the giggling gals. I'll always remember Tina's beautiful smile and her beautiful heart. She and Chris both left this Earth way too soon, I know they will have lots to talk about in heaven. So sorry for your loss and praying for God's perfect peace to surround her family. Lee and Mary Branson

“ Tina was taken way too soon. She loved her family so much. When I would cut her hair at the salon we would talk about our grandkids and she was so excited when I asked about her granddaughter and soon to be grandbaby. I will miss her so much Love ya Tina!

“ I love you Tina and I saw the deepest love of all reflected in my sister's eyes from watching you her beautiful daughter grow and have your own family and grand-daughter. Your legacy is the wonderful human beings you created and the far reaching rivers of love which still flow to this huge family you were part of. As your sister Tanya said to me "life will never be the same." Enjoy heaven my sweet niece.
