“ My condolences and prayers to the family. I still can't believe you are gone. You were the best friend anyone could ask for. Your pain is gone and now we are left behind to heal. No-one could catch a fish like you, you were always so gruff and crabby but under all that you were so soft and kind. You were the kind of friend we could always depend on and there was that rule about you "Don't ask if you don't want to hear the truth" I love you and miss you already. We will take care of Marde, please watch over us. Rest in peace my dear friend, I love you
