

Verna Viola Scroggin McCarville

December 6, 1938 - February 14, 2016

Verna Viola (Voshall) Scroggin McCarville, 77, of Grand Island passed away Sunday, February 14, 2016.

Memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday at New Life Community Church with Pastor Stan Davis officiating. To honor Verna's wishes, cremation has taken place. Burial of ashes will be held privately at a later date. All Faiths Funeral Home is serving the family.

Verna was born December 6, 1938 at Winona, Kansas to Charles and Alta (DeLong) Voshall.

She married William Edward Scroggin on November 13, 1973. They had two children, Debbie and Greg. After William's death, Verna married Jerome McCarville and they had four children, Kirk, Garth, Eric and Mona.

Verna always worked in some capacity with the family business, at Gold Cure Apartments and the salvage business, including cooking and washing for the employees.

She enjoyed nature, camping, fishing, and her beloved cats and dogs prior to moving to her final home at Park Place Golden Living Center. She made many friends at her new home and continued her love of Bingo, word searches, puzzles and book reading. She also enjoyed researching history, which led to her compiling a book on Nebraska Counties.

She is survived by her children, Debbie (Gary) Krugman of Grand Island, Kirk (Kayleene) McCarville, Garth McCarville, Eric McCarville and Mona Medbery; ten grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William Scroggin; her parents; and her son, Gregory Scroggin.
