Virginia is preceded in death by her parents, husband, Bob, brothers-in-law, Doug Dudley, Ted Spencer and Lino Peace.

Virginia Lee (Kelly) Bedner was born September 26, 1936, to Walter and Alice (Leibhart) Kelly. She grew up on a farm near Broken Bow.

She attended Dutchman Valley grade school and graduated from Broken Bow High School in 1954. She then attended St. Francis School of Nursing in Grand Island and graduated in 1957.

Virginia married Bob Bedner in 1957. They moved to California. To this union there were four children born, Tom, Dan, Robin and John.

She worked in several hospitals in California down through the years. She belonged to the Beta-Sigma-Phi, Catholic Daughters of America, of St. Mary's Cathedral, was a health nurse at St. Mary's Catholic School and her Church in Wrightwood, CA.

She was an avid reader, loved to play cards and work puzzles with her sisters and root for Cornhusker football.

In her later years her health started to give her trouble so she moved to Grand Island, to be near family.

Memorials are suggested to The American Cancer Society.
