

Vivian M. Walford

October 25, 1942 - November 21, 2020

Vivian M. (Molt) Walford, 78, of Grand Island passed away on Saturday, November 21, 2020 at Kearney Regional Medical Center.

Private Family burial will take place at Westlawn Memorial park Cemetery. Memorials services will be held at a later date. All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated later.

Vivian was born on October 25, 1942 at Spalding, NE, daughter of Clyde and Pearl (Nott) Molt.

She graduated valedictorian of her class in 1960. On May 20, 1962 she was united in marriage to Ted Walford. They made their home in Grand Island where Vivian was employed by St. Francis Medical Center, Twin Rivers and the Ordinance Plant before starting Insulation Island Company with Ted.

Vivian was a member of Professional Women's Association and Home Builder's Association. She enjoyed listening to Classic Country music and attending music festivals. Camping and boating in Colorado was her favorite family adventure. Vivian was a rummage sale queen and loved to shop for a bargain.

She is survived by her husband, Ted of Grand Island; sons, Douglas Walford of Denver, CO, and Dennis (Jennifer Rutherford) Walford of Parker, CO; along with many extended family and friends.

Vivian was preceded in death by her parents, brothers, Dean and Richard Molt; sisters, Mary Alice Wheeler and Anna Mae Fiek.

“ As the former Activities Director at a Grand Island nursing home, I was privileged to meet and share conversations with Vivian. I know she loved her dogs and was disappointed when they could no longer come to visit at the home. Vivian had an outgoing personality and was always so pleasant to be around. I thank God that He allowed me to be a small part of Vivian's life. I will always remember her.

“ Ted and family,
Prayers and thoughts sent. Vivian was a great friend. Have lots of memories of riding with her on her motorcycle and stories about her parrot.
