Zachery James Shultz was born on June 8, 1992 in Grand Island, oldest and only son of James "Jim" Shultz and Angela (Stauss) Oliver. He grew up in Grand Island, Chapman and Aurora. He was an onery, yet caring big brother to two sisters, Amy and Jaiden. He loved being outside and enjoyed riding horses, especially Star; dirt bikes and 4-wheelers. In his early 20s he earned his GED.

On May 14, 2018 he married his best friend and constant companion, Kaitlin May. He not only married the love of his life but he also gained sons, Landon and Jourden.

Zack connected with children, and was a little bit of a kid at heart. He was a motivator, and brought a smile to his co-workers at Truss Craft of Nebraska, where he loved to bring his creative skills and woodworking abilities.

Zack enjoyed being outdoors, he loved going catfishing and camping. He had a way with words and loved music, especially rap. He was a best friend to many, and had many colorful ideas. Zack was loyal, dedicated and loving father, husband, son and grandson.

His memory is loved by his wife, Kaitlin Shultz of Chapman; son, Kaiden Shultz of Genoa; stepsons, Landon and Jourden; father, Jim Shultz of Grand Island; mother, Angela Oliver of Grand Island; sisters, Amy Sain of Sturgis, SD; and Jaiden Shultz of Grand Island; grandpa, Wilber Stauss of Grand Island; grandmother, Kathy Peterson of Grand Island; five nieces and nephews with one on the way; numerous extended family and friends.
